ORDER

This is an application filed by the above applicant against the above opponent under Section 33(2)(b) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, hereinafter briefly called the Act, read with rule 60 (2) of the Industrial Disputes (Central) Rules, 1957, here-in-after briefly called the Rules, for approval by this Tribunal of the dismissal order passed by the applicant against the said opponent.

2. It is stated in this application that the opponent started remaining absent without permission immediately after joining the services of the Company. On earlier occasion, for habitually remaining absent without permission, he was warned twice. He was also charge-sheeted and, subsequently, after accepting the charges and assurance to the management that he would not repeat the same and would be regular in his work, he was suspended for a period of 2 days as a matter of punishment. But even thereafter he has continued to remain absent without permission and there is no improvement in his attendance; he has cultivated strong habit to remain absent without caring for any action taken against him. From January 1979 to December, 1979 again he has remained absent for seventy four and a half days apart from his sanctioned leave. He was, therefore, charge-sheeted and asked to submit his explanation of the charges levelled against him. He submitted his written explanation, after which an enquiry was conducted. The Inquiry Officer held the opponent guilty of the following misconduct:

"Habitual absence without permission or absence without permission for the period exceeding 10 consecutive days or over staying the sectioned leave for a period not exceeding 10 consecutive days without sufficient ground or proper satisfactory explanation."

The findings of the Inquiry Officer were accepted and in view of the gravity of the misconduct proved against the opponent, a show-cause notice was sent to him as to why he should not be dismissed from service of the Company for the misconduct mentioned in the charge-sheet. The opponent submitted his explanation in writing, which was considered by the employer. Finally, it was decided to dismiss the opponent from services which decision was communicated to the opponent by letter No. GSL/04/1/2529, dated 22-5-80. One month's wages, under proviso to section 33(2)(b) of the Act, was sent to him by Money Order.

3. The opponent, served with notice, prayed for time to file his reply but, on subsequent occasions, remained always absent and the case proceeded ex-parte regarding him. On behalf of the employer, Shri Narayan R. Narendra was examined, whose statement is on record. He has produced exhibits E-1 to E-10. Finally, arguments of the employer's representative were heard.

4. Exh. E-1 is the charge-sheet dated 20-2-80 issued to the opponent, which bears his signature acknowledging the receipt.

Exh. E-2 is the reply of the opponent to the above charge-sheet.

Exh. E-3 is the letter, dated 20-3-80, sent by the company to the opponent, saying that his explanation was found unsatisfactory and, therefore, an inquiry would be held against him. This letter too was received by the opponent, who has put his signature at the bottom of the left side corner.

Exh. E-4 is the letter of the opponent to the Personnel Officer of the Company to postpone the enquiry for reasons mentioned in the letter.

Exh. E-5 is the letter, dated 27-3-80, by the Company to the opponent giving him a fresh date for enquiry. This letter too was received by the opponent, who has signed on the left side corner at the bottom.

Exh. E-6 are the enquiry proceedings, in which the opponent participated.

Exh. E-7 is the report of the Inquiry Officer.

Exh. E-8 is the letter sent by the Company to the opponent informing him that the findings of the Company and, therefore, he has been found guilty of the misconduct mentioned in the charge-sheet; show-cause notice was given to him as to why he should not be dismissed for the said misconduct.

Exh. E-9 is the explanation submitted by the opponent; and Exh. E-10 is the dismissal order, dated 22-5-80, with immediate effect, informing the opponent that one month's salary under section 33(2)(b) of the Act has been sent to him by Money Order.

5. The above evidence led by the applicant proves that the applicant has made a prima facie case for the approval of the dismissal order passed by the company against the opponent and, therefore, I grant the applicant's request and accord the approval asked for.
